

Jay Berneburg
Attorney at Law

I was admitted to practice in October 1997. I was appearing on cases as early as 1995 as a rule 9 intern.

I made a relationship with psychedelics and cannabis in 1972. I have used Cannabis, Mushrooms, LSD, MDA, MDMA, Peyote, and Ayahuasca.

I have Masters Degree in Religious Studies from Arizona State University; my masters thesis centered on the religious use of peyote in the Native American Church.

I have been active in cannabis law since first defending medical cannabis as early as 1997.

I recently completed training approved by the Oregon Health Administration and am certified as a psilocybin facilitator.
