

My name is Garrett S. Eggen. I'm from Portland, OR and moved back in 2021. I graduated from the Santa Clara University in 2015. I received my law degree from Tulane University School of Law.

I have been practicing bankruptcy law for my entire career. I began my career at Richards, Layton & Finger in Delaware focusing primarily on representing debtors in chapter 11 bankruptcy cases. I have been with Sussman Shank since 2021 and my practice has since expanded to representing creditors, debtors and trustees in chapter 7, 11, 12 and 13 cases as well as in receivership cases. I am a member of both the Oregon and Washington Creditor Debtor Rights Section. I have also worked extensively on bankruptcy cases in the Eastern District of Washington.

I am interested in providing input on Local Rules and Forms for the Washington Bankruptcy Courts and I would be interested in serving as a member at large of the Executive Committee for the Washington Creditor Debtors Rights Section.

Thanks!
