

Allen (AT) Miller is a litigator and transactional attorney who represents clients in disputes involving real estate, land use, zoning, environmental, air, water, hazardous waste, shorelines, and natural resources law.

AT advises clients regarding commercial and residential purchase and sale agreements, leases, easements, water rights, right-of-way vacations, boundary line disputes, farming, and timber. He has successfully handled cases at all levels of the judicial system from hearing examiner to the United States Supreme Court.

Mr. Miller is also a trained mediator and assists parties in resolving disputes outside of court. Mr. Miller has served as an Adjunct Law Professor at Seattle University School of Law teaching courses in land use and environmental law and has been an instructor for numerous CLE courses.

AT recently Co-chaired the Environmental and Land Use Section Mid-year meeting in Suncadia. As a Spokane-based attorney he would bring an Inland Empire perspective to the ELUL executive committee. He is also licensed in Idaho.