The INDIAN LAW SECTION provides a forum for practitioners representing clients with diverse interests affected by Indian law to learn more about Indian law. Federal, Tribal and state laws, executive and administrative actions, and court decisions provide a complex and rapidly evolving array of law which affect legal services provided by practitioners to clients.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR

OCT. 1, 2023-SEPT. 30, 2024

- Partnered with the Seattle University Law Center for Indian Law and Policy, and Stokes Lawrence LLP to hold the 36th Annual Indian Law CLE, which continues to generate a great amount of revenue for the Section, allowing the Section to provide scholarships and other services to the greater Indian Law community.
- Partnered with the WSBA to provide an Intro to Indian Law CLE, which will be available on demand and provides much needed baseline understanding of Indian Law for practitioners in the state.
- Provided financial assistance to Native American Law Student Association (NALSA) groups at Seattle University and University of Washington Schools of Law. Funds were utilized for attendance of the annual Federal Bar Association Indian Law Conference and Moot Court competitions. The Section also sponsored a table at the UW NALSA Salmon Bingo Dinner and the UW Law annual symposium.
