

International Practice Section

The INTERNATIONAL PRACTICE SECTION has a broad focus that includes not only the study of current developments in the field of international law but also immigration law, international transactional work, aerospace, taxation, intellectual property, financing, services, trade regulation, exports and imports, transnational contracts, travel, and international dispute resolution. Members represent a wide variety of backgrounds and practices, including full-time and part-time practitioners, government, business, foreign lawyers, academia, internationally focused law students, and those simply intellectually interested.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR 10/1/22 – 9/30/23

- Produced 10 Mini-CLEs, free to section members.
- Held the in-person Spring Event, which included a Mini-CLE on Maritime Issues in the Indo-Pacific.
- Awarded a $1,000 scholarship to our 2022-2023 Huneke Fellow, University of Washington 2L AJ Panganiban, who attended almost all executive committee monthly meetings and assisted with our mentorship program.
- Selected Tsechu Dolma, 2L at Seattle University Law School, as the 2023-2024 Huneke Fellow.
- Administered a foreign lawyer/law student mentoring program to foster business relationships and provide an opportunity to learn about legal practice in each other's home countries and practice areas.
- Held the section's annual meeting in September at an in-person event at the University of Washington Law School Gates Hall. Attendees included non-section members and law students.
