The JUVENILE LAW SECTION provides an opportunity for legal professionals who work with juveniles and their families in child welfare and juvenile justice to meet together and work collaboratively on issues facing their clients. Areas of legal practice the section addresses include child welfare, juvenile justice, status offenses, immigration as it relates to children and families, truancy, at-risk-youth and children in need of services proceedings, as well as a variety of civil legal needs of youth. The Section welcomes advocates from all interested disciplines and a variety of fields of law, including juvenile justice, child welfare, and those who represent youth in civil legal practice.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR OCT. 1, 2023-SEPT. 30, 2024

- SIJ CLE Series: in collaboration with Kids in Needs of Defense (KIND), the Section sponsored and produced three Mini-CLEs focused on issues related to Special Immigrant Juveniles: (1) Introduction to Special Immigrant Status: Role of State Court, May; (2) Immigrant Children and SIJ Relief: Considerations for Families, June; (3) Immigrant Children and SIJ Relief: Accessing Benefits and Resources, July.
- Awarded two $300 scholarships to Section members to help fund their attendance at the Children's Justice Conference, the largest child welfare conference in the Pacific Northwest.
- In collaboration with the WSBA, worked to redesign the Section's webpage to include customized Executive Committee position descriptions, Executive Committee bios, and more.
