

Advancing WSBA's Vision of a Just Washington

Scholarship Announcement

2016 WSBA Tax Section

LL.M. Scholarship

The Washington State Bar Association Tax Section is pleased to announce its annual $5,000 LL.M. Scholarship. Students who have been accepted by and plan to attend a Tax LL.M. program in 2016-2017 at an accredited United States law school are eligible to apply.

The scholarship committee will evaluate the following factors in awarding the scholarship: (a) academic record; (b) the demonstrated intent to become an active member of the Washington State Bar Association Tax Section upon completion of his/her tax LL.M.; and (c) financial need for the scholarship. The scholarship will be awarded at the Tax Section Annual Luncheon in May 2016.

2015 CONTRIBUTORS

The Tax Section would like to thank and acknowledge the following attorneys and firms who graciously contributed to make this scholarship possible in 2015.

Robert Boeshaar
Cecelia Cordova
Jennifer Gellner
Cory Johnson

My V. Vo
LeSourd & Patten, P.S.
Skagit Law Group

To contribute to the 2016 Taxation Section Scholarship Fund, please donate online or contact the Washington State Bar Foundation.

Advancing WSBA's Vision of a Just Washington

Scholarship Application

To apply for the 2016 WSBA Tax Section LL.M. Scholarship, please submit the following:

- Resume, including name, address, phone number, email address, name of law school and expected graduation date;
- Acceptance letter from an LL.M. tax program;
- Law school transcript; and
- Written explanation, not to exceed two double spaced pages, addressing
 - 1) Commitment to practice law in Washington State,
 - 2) Reasons for pursuing an LL.M., and
 - 3) Financial need for the scholarship.

Applicants may apply for the scholarship by sending their application materials to Allison Foreman by email at allison@fahzlaw.com, or by mail to:

Allison Foreman
Foreman, Appel, Hotchkiss & Zimmerman, PLLC
124 N. Wenatchee Ave., Suite A
Wenatchee, WA, 98101.

Applications must be received no later than May 1, 2016.

Applicants may be interviewed by the Scholarship Committee by phone. The scholarship recipient is encouraged to attend the Tax Section Annual Luncheon in Seattle in May, 2016 to receive the award. The registration fee will be waived.

Please note that those related to members of the Tax Section Executive Council are not eligible for the scholarship.