Bankruptcy-Consumer Law

VI. SUBSTANTIVE LAW

Themes:

- Guiding the practice of consumer and bankruptcy law.

Conversation Starters:

- Why are you interested in this area of law?
- Are you interested in representing creditors or debtors?
- Clients: more interested in representing individual debtors or businesses?
- Do you have any experience in this area? Did you take any bankruptcy or consumer law related courses in law school?
- What are your strengths/weaknesses?
- Must be licensed in federal court to practice bankruptcy law. If you are a solo attorney, you will need to purchase and annually renew requisite software (only if representing debtors—it's possible to represent creditors in bankruptcy court without purchasing any special "bankruptcy software").

Activities:

- Visit bankruptcy court—341 hearings for CH 7 and 13.
- Visit a bankruptcy court motion docket.
- Volunteer/shadow at a consumer law clinic.
- Attend a Creditor Debtor Rights section meeting or activity.

Resources:

- Discuss what additional resources the mentor/mentee has found useful in their own practice.
- WSBA Creditor-Debtor Rights Section
- Website for Western District of WA (or applicable District)
- The National Consumer Law Center has numerous excellent treatises and publications about various areas of consumer law and bankruptcy. Many of their treatises are available at local law libraries.
- Local nonprofit that assists low income individuals with debt/consumer issues, has several volunteer opportunities.
- NARCA: National Creditors Bar Association
